

Schlund+Partner could have hosted more domains if they didn't choose to serve only those with 1&1 Internet services. As it is, they are already Europe's leading domain registrar, so they could top the list of market players if they had extended their services to just everyone else.

The screenshot shows the 1&1 Domains website with a blue header. The main heading is "SECURE YOUR DOMAIN NAME TODAY" with a sub-heading "Check the availability of your preferred web address:". A yellow banner on the left announces a promotion: "We've registered the UK's 10 millionth domain! To celebrate .UK registry is giving away an Apple iPad each day. Register yours today for a chance to win!". Below this, a table lists domain prices for the first year. On the right, a list of domain TLDs is shown with their respective prices per year.

TLD	Price (first year)	Price (per year)
.co.uk	£2.49*	£9.99
